

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vettori, Powell, Arnold amongst 20 international and Indian cricketers committed to Legends League Cricket

New Delhi, August 14, 2022: Legends League Cricket today announced that about 80 international and Indian players committed their availability for participation in the second season of league. They will be available for pick up by the franchisees for the drafting event to be held in Mumbai soon.

The overall pool of players now stands at 85 players from 10 countries across the World. The players who have confirmed now are Daniel Vettori - New Zealand, Russel Arnold - Sri Lanka, Fidel Edwards - West Indies, Ricardo Powell - West Indies, Tino Best - West Indies, Nick Compton – England, Ryan Sidebottom – England, Phil Mustard – England, Jade Dernbach – England, Richard Levi – England, Hamilton Masakadza – Zimbabwe, Vernon Philander - South Africa, Dimitri Mascarenhas – England, Samit Patel – England, John Mooney – Ireland, Nawroz Mangal – Afghanistan, Manvinder Bisla – India, Amit Bhandari – India, Rajat Bhatia – India, Sudeep Tyagi – India.

Raman Raheja, Co-Founder & CEO, Legends League Cricket said, “With the pool of players going up everyday, we expect that franchisees will have almost 110 players to pick from, by the time we will close for further registration. It is going to be an exciting battle during the drafting event. We have brought in lots of innovations while picking the players of their choice. Every franchise will get a chance to pick their favorite players. Four players in the playing 11 will be compulsorily Indian players. There are other modalities as well for an eventful season. We will soon announce the same on the day of drafting event at Mumbai.”

Ravi Shastri, Commissioner of the Legend League Cricket said, “With so much enthusiasm around the league, it is going to be exhilarating experience for everyone, whether fans or players, all will have a life time experience.”

For Media contacts:

+91-9810013923

aroon@llct20.com