

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BookMyShow appointed as Exclusive Ticketing Partner for the next season of Legends League CricketNext Season of Legends League Cricket scheduled to be played from 16th September to 6th October 2022

New Delhi September 05: Legends League Cricket has announced that India's leading entertainment destination, BookMyShow has been appointed as the exclusive ticketing partner for its upcoming season.

The next season will be played between September 18 till October 8, 2022 and tickets will be available exclusively on BookMyShow. Fans can also get their tickets for the special matches which will be played on 16th September 2022 between Indian Maharajas and World Giants. Tickets for all matches will be available on BookMyShow from 5th September 2022

Raman Raheja, Co-founder and CEO Legends League Cricket said, "With the scale of its loyal and compelling consumer base, BookMyShow brings in a focussed approach and experience as far as online ticketing goes. We hope to have a world class experience for our spectators at every touch points whether on the field or online touch points and that is the reason we have partnered with the most preferred online entertainment platform for ticketing."

Anil Makhija, COO-Live Entertainment and Venues, Book My Show said, "With a compelling line up of players, the upcoming season of the highly popular Legends League Cricket is all set to attract massive set of crowds. BookMyShow is delighted to be associated with this one of its kind initiatives, where more than 100 legendary cricket players have come together on one platform to entertain fans. We can't wait for the season to get started."

Media Contact:

media@lct20.com

